

Tri-Fest 2017 : Community Service Project CHECKLIST

Business:

- Your small company is doing well and the local owners were born and raised in the Tri-Cities of Washington State.
- They have always dreamed of giving back to the community in some way.
- Devise a plan of what your company can do to give back to the community.
- This could be local, state, nationally or world.
- Pick a population of people that you feel are less fortunate and need help.
- You have to do more than just give financial assistance.
